COUNTY COMMITTEE DOINGS

A special meeting of the Democratic County Central Committee was called last Tuesday for considertion of the re-appointment of Postmaster L. J. Thomas of Richmond.

The meeting was adjourned before the roll was called! And, if that seems like one from Believe-It-or-Not Ripley the fact of the matter was that on the very first name called—that of Committeeman Beasley of Antioch—two proxies were presented. One by Thomas Kenny of Point Richmond, whose proxy, dated January 25th, was sworn to before a notary and revoked all previous proxies; another, by Chairman Michael Mulcahy, also dated January 25th, was not notarized nor did it revoke any other proxy.

How come that Mr. Beasley signed two proxies for the same meeting? Well, as far as we know, from one remark made by the chairman during the meeting—that he had more of the proxies in his pocket—we give it as our opinion that Mr. Beasley's proxy was given to Mr. Mulcahy on the basis that the Lafayette or Port Costa postoffice situation was coming up; but when Mr. Beasley's attention was called to the fact that the Mulcahy proxy was liable to be used at this suddenly-called special meeting to throw a monkey wrench into the McAdoo-Anglim-Sawaliesch-Thomas-Burt,CIO-AFL Farm & Labor set-up, Mr. Beasley didn't want any part in such a move, and specifically gave his proxy to Mr. Kenny to be sure his vote would not be counted in opposition to the regular organization which is presently in the Democratic saddle in California.

Only twenty committeemen were present or represented by proxy. Three were absent; and the vote came on whether to reject both proxies or not. The vote was 10 to 10, Chairman Mulcahy's vote being cast to reject his own proxy as well as the one held by Mr. Kenny.

Faced with a different situation than was the case when the Mulcahy-Willis-Sanderson Lang-McGimsey faction had gathered 11 out of the 24 votes of the committee to kick poor old Harry Burt out of the chair, 11 to 3 (because the serious minded members of the committee had tired of the ceaseless bickering, had stayed away from the meetings), the highly organized minority found themselves in a panic when they saw the same serious-minded members back in their seats, determined that there is to be an end to the activities of a small clique on the committee which has continually pestered Postmaster General Farley, Senator McAdoo, and other important figures with their senseless demanding of this and of that, and then in the next week or so turning right-about-face and demanding just the opposite.

Anyway, the vote was 10 to 10. Motion was made to adjourn and unanimously agreed to—before the question of the roll call had been decided.

What this sudden special meeting was all about, many of the county committeemen, including myself, have been, and still are, puzzled; because Postmaster Thomas has been assured by Senator McAdoo that the recommendation for his re-appointment has been made. All of which is as it should be, for no one can deny that greater progress and additional service has been added so that Thomas' record is the best of any postmaster in Richmond.

So what all the shouting is about, nobody knows. Like Pandora's Box the present set-up in our county committee is good for anything from a three-ring circus to a volcanic eruption. It is a shame, but it is so.

So long until we get our notice of the next meeting—H.R.B.

FOR THE RECORD—Voting to reject the proxies:—Mulcahy, Geraventa, Sanderson, Willis, Lang, Adams, McGimsey, Aiello, Chiapero, Stoddard (Willis prox.

Voting to accept the proxies: (That is, of course, voting to keep the proxies alive, and on a succeeding vote accept the proxy given under oath: Assemblyman Sawaliesch (Burt proxy), Burt, Kenny, Healy, Engells, Alexander, Brady, Hoffman, Kelleher, and Sellers.

In The WEEK'S NEWS

A GOOD JOB—E. G. Barrows, secretary of the New York Yankees, congratulates W. S. McLean, director of advertising for the Fisher Body division of General Motors, following preview of the new official sound motion picture of the American League, "Batter Up." THOUSANDS WILL ATTEND

All roads lead to the Roosevelt Birthday Ball tomorrow night.

In Richmond the Veteran's Memorial Hall will be the scene of the local ball at which Hon. A. B. Hinkley, mayor of Richmond and county chairman of the event this year, will be the host.

Thousands more who may not care to attend the ball have purchased tickets, the proceeds from which will be used for the alleviation of those who suffer with the pain of infantile paralysis. Through the thoughtfulness of America's No. 1 Citizen, President Franklin D. Roosevelt who has chosen his method, above all others, for his name and his goodness to be perpetuated.

There will be four monster Birthday Balls in Contra Costa County—at Richmond; at Martinez; at Crockett; and at Antioch. The latter will, of course be participated in by Pittsburgers and other Eastern Contra Costans.

All out for the birthday ball!

TRANSPORTATION

NEW BUS TERMINAL OPEN

Key System bridge motor coach lines will commence operation into the new Key System-Santa Fe Terminal in San Francisco on Tuesday, February 1, 1938, it was announced today by Alfred J. Lundberg, president of the transit company. The new terminal building is located on 4th Street just off Market Street.

Passengers will be able to board motor coaches from covered platforms even with the floor level of coaches and departures will be announced by dispatchers over a public address system installed in the station.

Modern in design and construction, the recently completed terminal building has been provided with every facility for the comfort and convenience of patrons, Lundberg said.

11th, the day when our Big Edition is distributed.

The general idea is to have a group of simultaneous dinners at our several fine hotels and at the Point Masonic Temple with band concerts, drum corps, etc., —a regular hot time in the old town, in the good old Point Richmond fashion.

Anyone who is interested is cordially invited to attend the organization meeting to be held next Tuesday night, 7:30 p.m. at Gust. Allyn's store, at 130 Washington Avenue.

If you are interested come and help plan the big doings.

Mrs. Leslie Turley entertained a few intimate friends at lunch Thursday in her new home on Western Drive. Among the guests were Mrs. Chester Stanley, Mrs. Frank Moore, Mrs. Carl Brown and Mrs. Denzel McCracken.

REED FOR SUPREME COURT

Solicitor General Is Nominated by the President . . . Roosevelt Would Wipe Out All Holding Companies

Drags Wolf and Foolish Bear, aged members of the ancient water-buster clan of North Dakota's Gros Ventre Indians, are shown being greeted by "The Great White Father," President Roosevelt, whom they visited on a trip which they hope will bring a merciful rain to end the long dearth in their parched country. The Indians were on their way to the Heye foundation of the Museum of the American Indian where George G. Heye was to return to them a sacred bundle, a "medicine" they believe will make their lands fertile again. Since the loss of the bundle in 1907, their country is slowly turning into desert due to lack of rain.

Choice of Reed Liked

NOMINATION of Stanley Forman Reed of Kentucky, solicitor general, as associate justice of the Supreme court met with general approval and it was predicted in Washington that he would be speedily confirmed by the senate with little or no opposition.

Stanley F. Reed

Republicans and Democrats alike were quick to praise the Kentuckian, who, while a defender of many New Deal measures, has acquired a reputation for being realistic and a liberal with "moderate" tendencies.

Senator Ashurst, chairman of the judiciary committee, named a subcommittee which planned quick public hearings on the nomination.

Mr. Reed, who will fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of Justice George Sutherland, is fifty-three years old and has never before been on the bench. In 1929 Herbert Hoover, then President, made him general counsel of the federal farm board. Later he was shifted to the same capacity in the Reconstruction Finance corporation. He retained his post at the outset of the present administration.

Then President Roosevelt picked him for solicitor general to defend the New Deal cases before the Supreme court. Of these he won 11 and lost 2.

In the opinion of lawyers Mr. Reed's legal philosophy is orthodox. His liberalism is not that which would do away with legal procedure in establishment of untried schemes, yet he feels that congress and the President would shirk their duty if they did not venture into legislative fields of untried constitutionality.

Hits Holding Companies

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, in a press conference, declared he was determined to wipe out all holding companies. The method to be used in eliminating them, he said, was still under discussion; he indicated it might be done through legislation and the exercise of the taxing power.

The "death sentence" imposed on holding companies in the utility industry in the 1935 act is a step toward the new purge. The President revealed that Wendell L. Willkie, head of the Commonwealth and Southern corporation, recently had urged him to relax this restriction and that his plea had been rejected.

Senator Norris, who has proposed that most holding companies be taxed out of existence, holds that it might be desirable to retain first degree companies, or those which hold securities in operating companies only.

Kidnaped Ross Was Slain

SCORE another for J. Edgar Hoover and his "G-men". They have solved the mysterious case of the kidnaping of Charles Ross, elderly retired manufacturer, in Chicago last September, arrested the kidnaper and obtained his confession that he killed both Ross and his own confederate after getting $50,000 ransom money from Mrs. Ross.

The murderer, Peter Anders, was taken at Santa Anita race track, near Los Angeles, where he had been passing some of the ransom money through the pari mutuel machines. Full details of his confession were not at once made public.

Tax Changes Planned

CHAIRMAN DOUGHTON and his house ways and means committee began hearings on proposals for 63 changes in the revenue laws which would exempt small corporations, constituting 90 per cent of American business, under the undivided profits levy and grant large enterprises only part of the relief demanded from harsh rates.

These changes were formulated by Fred Vinson's subcommittee, which in a long report defended them as fair and predicted they would stimulate business without reducing the aggregate federal revenue.

In addition to changes in the tax structure the sub-committee urged recodification of the complex maze of internal revenue statutes to clarify their meaning, speed tax collections, and simplify enforcement.

The most important individual change recommended was the proposed exemption of small corporations—those earning $25,000 or less annually and comprising about 90 per cent of the nation's 200,000 business concerns—from the undistributed surplus tax.

The report proposed as a "general rule" a tentative tax of 20 per cent on corporations' earnings more than $25,000 per year, but allowing a credit of four-tenths of 1 per cent for each 10 per cent of earnings declared as dividends.

No Peace with Chiang

JAPAN is determined to bring to pass the complete downfall of Chiang Kai-shek and his Nationalist government of China. Following a meeting of the imperial council in Tokyo in the presence of the emperor, it was announced that Japan would withdraw its recognition of the Chiang regime and would encourage the Japanese-dominated government set up in Peking.

The official statement continued: "Needless to say, this involves no change in the policy adopted by the Japanese government of respecting the territorial integrity and sovereignty of China, as well as the rights and interests of the other powers in China.

"Japan's responsibilities for peace in East Asia are now even heavier than ever before. It is the fervent hope of the government that the people will put forth still greater effort toward the accomplishment of this important task incumbent on the nation."

Shanghai was informed that Chiang had ordered his troops "not to retreat a single inch."

Naval Building Race

FRANCE'S reply to the recent announcement that Italy would build two 35,000 ton battleships is the decision to construct two battleships of 42,000 tons each, exceeded in size only by the British battle cruiser Hood. The navy committee of the chamber of deputies was preparing to ask Minister of Finance Georges Bonnet to supplement the 1938 naval budget by 2,000,000,000 francs from the sorely pressed treasury to keep ahead of Mussolini's forces at sea.

Dodd Angers the Nazis

WILLIAM E. DODD, until recently American ambassador to Berlin, has put himself in a class with Mayor La Guardia so far as the Nazis are concerned, by a speech in New York. It was violently anti-Hitler, and German Ambassador Hans Dieckhoff immediately made a bitter protest to Secretary of State Hull, saying Dodd had insulted the Reichsfuehrer.

W. E. Dodd

In particular the ambassador was angered by Dodd's statements that under Hitler "almost as many personal opponents were killed in five years as Charles II (king of England) executed in 20 years of the Seventeenth century," and that Hitler is "now more absolute than any medieval emperor of Germany."

Mr. Hull informed Dieckhoff that Dodd was now a private citizen and that our government does not have control over the utterances of individuals; also that Dodd's utterances do not represent the views of this government.

Canal Toll Fight On

SENATORS and representatives of the Mississippi valley were lining up for a determined fight against a bill sponsored by Senator McAdoo of California to exempt coastwise shipping from payment of Panama canal tolls. The opponents feel that the measure would endanger the prosperity of Middle West industries, many of which already have been crippled or wiped out since the opening of the Panama canal and the establishment of tolls lower than rail rates from the Mississippi valley to either coast. This cheapening of transportation for seaboard industries made it impossible for enterprise in the interior of the country to compete in seaboard markets.

Public hearings on the McAdoo bill were opened, and it was predicted there would be a great struggle in congress between seaboard and interior interests.

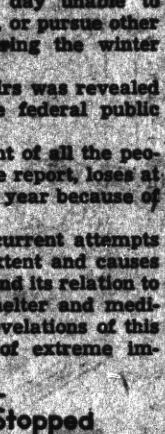
Big Flying Boat Destroyed

SAMOAN CLIPPER, huge flying boat of the Pan-American Airways, fell into the Pacific ocean near Samoa, carrying the seven members of the crew to their deaths. There were no passengers, for the ship was making one of its pioneering flights on the newly established route across the Pacific. It was on the way from Pago Pago harbor, American Samoa, to Auckland, New Zealand, and had turned back toward Pago Pago because of an oil leak. Presumably it was dumping gasoline to facilitate landing and the fuel exploded, destroying the plane.



Capt. Edwin C. Musick

First in the list of victims was Capt. Edwin C. Musick, considered the most experienced ocean flyer in the world and chief pilot of the Pacific division of Pan-American. He was one of the most conservative of flyers and officials of the company said he and his flight crew were entirely blameless for the disaster.

Those who perished with Musick were First Officer Cecil G. Sellers, Junior Flight Officer Paul S. Brunk, F. J. MacLean, J. W. Stickrod, J. A. Brooks and J. T. Findlay.

Six Million Ill Every Day

BECAUSE of illness or injury, an average of 6,000,000 of the country's 130,000,000 men, women and children are each day unable to work, attend school, or pursue other usual activities during the winter months.

This state of affairs was revealed by a report of the federal public health service.

Seventeen per cent of all the people, according to the report, loses at least one week in a year because of illness.

"In the light of current attempts to determine the extent and causes of unemployment, and its relation to inadequate food, shelter and medical care, further revelations of this survey should be of extreme importance."

Marriage Mills Stopped

INDIANA'S notorious marriage mills were given a death blow when the State Supreme court upheld a statute enacted 86 years ago forbidding county clerks to issue marriage licenses to women who are not residents of the county in which the license is issued.

The decision was hailed by officials of states that have raised their marital standards by enacting hygienic laws regulating issuance of marriage licenses.

WISCONSIN'S Supreme court gave a smashing blow to the La Follette program for public ownership of utilities when it declared the Wisconsin development authority act unconstitutional, being an illegal delegation of the state's sovereign governmental power to a private corporation.

By knocking out the WDA the court also sounded the death knell for the Wisconsin agricultural authority act, court attaches said.

France in a Crisis

FRANCE was indulging in another of its periodical governmental crises. Financial and labor troubles forced Premier Camille Chautemps and his Popular Front cabinet to resign, and the customary search for a man who could command a majority of the chamber ensued. At the present writing President Lebrun had turned again to Chautemps, but the situation was changing with each hour. Georges Bonnet, who has been serving as ambassador to Washington, tried his hand, but was blocked by Leon Blum, socialist leader and former premier. Then Blum undertook the job but gave up because of conservative opposition.

Civil War in C.I.O.

JOHN L. LEWIS, head of the C. I. O., and David Dubinsky, who has been one of his chief lieutenants, seem to have reached the parting of the ways and have been lambasting each other in public without restraint. Dubinsky, chief of the big International Ladies' Garment Workers' union, addressing 1,200 members of his executive boards, said Lewis was to blame for the collapse of peace negotiations between the C. I. O. and the A. F. of L., and declared no one man had a mortgage on the labor movement. He also denounced the infiltration of Communists into the C. I. O.

To this Lewis retorted with what Dubinsky called wisecracks, and the latter said: "I venture to say that, without distinction as to group or formation, the laboring masses of America are hungering and praying for peace and it is my belief, Mr. Lewis' wisecracking to the contrary notwithstanding, that they will not be denied such peace for long."

More G.O.P. Programs

BERTRAND SNELL, minority leader in the house, and Col. Frank Knox, Republican candidate for the vice presidency in 1936, have set forth programs for the G. O. P. and other opponents of the New Deal.

Frank Knox

Mr. Snell in a radio address proposed to restore confidence to the investing public and revive business activity by stopping wasteful expenditures, balancing the budget and liquidating Roosevelt social and economic experiments that he said have inspired distrust of the government and fears of the destruction of the capitalist system.

Colonel Knox, speaking at a dinner in Cleveland, declared that the Republican party must turn away from the high protective tariff, which it has championed for decades, and recognize that the time has come to reduce tariffs to meet changing conditions.

"Protect wage standards, yes!" he said. "Continue to protect monopoly, no!"

MACHADO-BANKS NUPTIALS

The marriage of Miss Evelyn Machado, popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Machado, to Mr. David Banks was solemnized in the Catholic church at Roseville last Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The Machados, like the Castros, the Andrades and others, are among the real pioneer California pioneer families so that a myriad of friends wishes the happy couple "bon voyage" for a successful and happy marriage.

The bride was attended by Miss Helen Onufer as maid of honor and Mr. Banks was served by his brother, Mr. John Banks as best man.

After a short honeymoon the young couple will reside in Oakland.

BEDTIME STORY

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

LITTLE STORIES FOR BEDTIME
BUMBLE BEE WON'T HELP

Bee, Bee, Bumble Bee,
Wouldn't tell a thing to me! —

SO SAID Peter Rabbit to himself as he sadly took his way back to the dear Old Briar Patch. Peter was tired, for he had had a long hunt to find Bumble. His nose was sore, for Bumble had thrust a sharp little lance into it to teach Peter not to poke his wobbly, inquisitive little nose into places where it had no business to be. But Peter wouldn't have minded these things if he had found out what he wanted to know. But he didn't find out a thing, and so he was anything but his usual happy self as he plodded wearily along. He was hot, tired, disappointed, and cross, and when you feel like that all at the same time you feel pretty much out of sorts, you know.

And it was all because Peter wanted to find out where the storehouse of Bumble's cousin, Mistress Busy Bee, was, so that he could tell Buster Bear, who is very fond of honey, and so make Buster his friend. He knew that it was in a hollow tree, probably high up, somewhere in the Green Forest, but however was he, who couldn't climb trees and couldn't fly, going to find out? Then Jimmy Skunk had suggested that if he wanted to find out, which he didn't, he would ask some one who knew to tell him. Right away Peter had thought of Bumble Bee. Of course Bumble Bee would know, being own cousin to Busy Bee. So Peter had run all over the Green Meadows trying to find Bumble Bee, only to get stung on the nose and find that Bumble couldn't if he would and wouldn't if he could tell where Busy Bee's storehouse was.

Now Peter and Bumble are old friends and neighbors, and it surprised Peter to have Bumble refuse his request. But when Bumble, who is very short-tempered and much given to rumbling and grumbling, not only refused, but took Peter to task and gave him a regular scolding for trying to find that storehouse, Peter hadn't been able to find a word to say.

"You ought to be ashamed of yourself, Peter Rabbit. Yes, sir, you ought to be ashamed of yourself to ask an old friend like me to make trouble for one of his own relatives," Bumble had said. "It would be bad enough for you to try to make trouble yourself, and I wouldn't have believed it of you before this. But to try to get me to tell you where my cousin's storehouse is so that that great robber, Buster Bear, can steal all she has worked so hard to make and save is is—why, it's—it's just awful! Buz-z-z, buz-z-z. I never heard of such a thing! How would you like to have your cousin, Jumper the Hare, go tell Reddy Fox of a hiding place where he would be sure to catch you? You'd think it's perfectly dreadful, wouldn't you? Well, what you have asked me to do is just as bad. Yes, sir, it's every bit as bad." You see Bumble had guessed right away why Peter wanted to find that storehouse.

"You Ought to Be Ashamed of Yourself, Peter Rabbit."

Now Peter had not once thought of it in that way. It was a new idea to him. He thought it all over after he got back to the dear Old Briar Patch as he nursed his sore nose. Little by little he began to see that Bumble was right. "Why," said he to himself, "I didn't think of it in that way. Of course, I wouldn't want Bumble to do anything to hurt one of his own relatives. Of course not. I didn't once think that finding that storehouse and telling Buster was going to hurt any one. But, of course, if he stole the honey, why—why—well, I wouldn't like it if it were my honey. I—I certainly would like to make Buster Bear my friend, but I don't want to make trouble, not real trouble, for anybody else."

Please write your name, address and pattern number plainly.

By Their Walk

An erect posture is closely associated with self-respect. We know that any physical expression tends reflexly to produce that emotion. Therefore, not only does self-respect naturally tend to brace a man's shoulders and straighten his spine but such attitude tends to brace up a man's mind also.

Those who have lost their self-respect nearly always slouch. The pharisee, the bully or the dandy strut or swagger. There is a golden middle road that stands for self-respect and self-confidence which combined with courtesy and consideration for others, we all should acquire.

The World in Texas

There are 265,896 square miles in Texas. The population of the world is estimated to be about 2,000,000,000. If all were moved to Texas, each person would have about .0001329 square miles of room. There are 27,878,400 square feet in a square mile, so that this would permit about 3,723 square feet per person.

Strange Facts

Cavalry Captured Dutch Fleet

A FEW men on horseback once conquered the Dutch fleet. The crews of the well-armed battleships were so surprised when they found their ships surrounded by a troop of cavalry that they surrendered without a fight.

This happened during the cold winter of 1794-95. In France there had been a revolution and the king, Louis XIV, was executed. The French, already at war with Austria, now found themselves forced to fight England, Holland and Spain.

Most of the fighting took place in what is now Belgium. The Dutch were protected until the winter of 1794-95. Then the French generals drove the Austrians across the Rhine, the English soldiers under the duke of York embarked for home. The army of the French general Pichegru crossed frozen rivers, a country bare of supplies, densely intersected with dykes to conquer Utrecht and finally Amsterdam.

North of Amsterdam is the long thumb-like peninsula of North Holland and that great inland sea, the Zuider-zee. Between the islands and the tip of North Holland the Dutch fleet had anchored for the winter. The winter of 1794-95 the fleet was frozen in at Texel.

Shortly after Christmas 1794 a small troop of Pichegru's cavalry rode out across the frozen waters. A handful of hussars surrounded the battleships. The Dutch fleet, though well-armed, surrendered to a few Frenchmen on horseback.

Perfect Leisure

Leisure, the highest happiness upon earth, is seldom enjoyed with perfect satisfaction except in solitudes. Indolence and indifference do not always afford leisure; for true leisure is frequently found in that interval of relaxation which divides a painful duty from an agreeable occupation; a toilsome business from the more agreeable occupations of literature and philosophy.—Zimmerman.

SORE THROAT WITH COLDS Given Fast Relief

Take 2 Bayer Tablets with a full glass of water.

Crush 3 Bayer Tablets in ⅓ glass of water—gargle twice every few hours.

The speed with which Bayer tablets act in relieving the distressing symptoms of colds and accompanying sore throat is utterly amazing . . . and the treatment is simple and pleasant. This is all you do. Crush and dissolve three genuine Bayer Aspirin tablets in one-third glass of water. Then gargle with this mixture twice, holding your head well back.

This medicinal gargle will act almost like a local anesthetic on the sore, irritated membrane of your throat. Pain eases promptly; rawness is relieved.

You will say it is remarkable. And the few cents it costs effects a big saving over expensive "throat gargles" and strong medicines. And when you buy, see that you get genuine BAYER ASPIRIN.

Know Thyself

By Dr. George D. Greer

WHAT IS A "MAN'S WOMAN" AND HOW DOES SHE DIFFER FROM OTHER WOMEN?

IN AN article in "The Modern Psychologist," Merton S. Yewdale, New York editor, describes a "man's woman" as one who lives her life for her man. She is feminine in physical form, but prefers to talk about the things men are interested in. She may have children, but is not the "mother type." She is deeply idealistic. If married, she is self-sufficient, and indifferent to other women, particularly to women's clubs. She is not as deeply attached to her home as to her husband, and will go with him to the ends of the earth. She must have absolute fidelity from her man, and wants to be appreciated. She does not crave publicity, but glories in the achievements of her man. She is likely to be artistic, rather than practical. Back of most great men stands such a woman—a man's woman.

Flying Fish Build Nests

Flying fish emulate birds not only in taking to the air; they also build nests. To be sure, their nests are no more like birds' nests than their "flight" is like the flight of birds. Nevertheless they are nests, with the eggs of flying fish in them. Dr. E. W. Gudger of the American Museum of Natural History, in a report prepared for the American Naturalist, summarized all the information available about these fish-nests. They are made in clumps of floating gulfweed or sargassum, and the stringy masses of eggs are not only sheltered in the nests, but serve to tie the structure together. For a long time it had been thought that these gulfweed nests were the work of the little sargassumfish, a fantastic little "finger-finned" creature that lurks in the masses of floating seaweed.

Doctor—I don't like to mention it but that cheque you gave me has come back.

Patient—Well, that sure is funny, Doc, so did my lumbago.

N-N-Nervous

In the course of a duel in France the parties discharged their pistols without effect, whereupon one of the seconds proposed that the combatants should shake hands. To this the other second objected.

"It is quite unnecessary," said he; "their hands have been shaking for half an hour."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets made of May Apple are effective in removing accumulated body waste.—Adv.

Command of Self

No man is free who cannot command himself.—Pythagoras.

Beware Coughs from common colds That Hang On

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold, or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with any remedy less potent than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble and aids nature to soothe and heal the inflamed mucous membranes and to loosen and expel the germ-laden phlegm.

Even if other remedies have failed, don't be discouraged, try Creomulsion. Your druggist is authorized to refund your money if you are not thoroughly satisfied with the benefits obtained from the very first bottle. Creomulsion is one word—not two, and it has no hyphen in it. Ask for it plainly, see that the name on the bottle is Creomulsion, and you'll get the genuine product and the relief you want. (Adv.)

Absence Noted

Love comes unseen; we only see it go.—Austin Dobson.

Don't Neglect Minor Throat Irritation

Don't take chances. Rub on soothing, warming Musterole. Relief generally follows.

Musterole gets such marvelous results because it's NOT just a salve. It's a "counter-irritant"—easing, warming, stimulating and penetrating—helpful in drawing out local congestion and pain.

Used by millions for 30 years. Recommended by many doctors and nurses. All druggists'. In three strengths: Regular Strength, Children's (mild), and Extra Strong. Approved by Good Housekeeping.

STAR DUST
Movie • Radio

★★★By VIRGINIA VALE★★★

THESE are stirring times in radio, motion pictures and newsreels for all three have reached a new high peak of achievement. With the Toscanini symphony concerts the National Broadcasting company has deservedly won the greatest audience response, the highest tributes from music critics, composers and musicians.

Norman Alley's Universal newsreel of the bombardment of the U. S. S. Panay is graphic history that brings to every citizen a first-hand account of the outrageous conditions our government is facing in the Orient. In the field of fictional motion pictures "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," Walt Disney's first feature-length fantasy, is a glittering milestone. Any day now, Dopey, the little dwarf who never learned to talk because he had nothing to say, will take his place in your hearts along with Mickey Mouse and Donald Duck.

Paramount and Warner Brothers are going to remake some old pictures of theirs, having failed to find any new story material as good. Paramount has selected "The Letter" as the first starring vehicle for Isa Miranda, famous Italian actress. This story, a spine-chilling thriller by Somerset Maugham, was first filmed some ten years ago, and was an outstanding success among early talking pictures. Warner Brothers feel that it is high time to film "Trilby" again. This time Claude Rains and either Anita Louise or Olivia de Havilland will play Svengali and Trilby.

When you read that so-and-so made a film test in New York and was sent to Hollywood under contract to make pictures, it may not sound impressive. It should, however, for last year out of 52,000 applicants, only 56 won contracts. Variety, the authoritative trade paper of the theatrical world, checked up and found that of the 52,000 applicants, only 6,050 had auditions. Among these, 360 were given screen tests. Most spectacular successes among the young players sent to Hollywood a year or so ago are Frances Farmer, Don Ameche, and Tyrone Power.

DON'T LOOK NOW BUT—Jim Ameche, twenty-two-year-old Grand Hotel star, once held the high school debating championship in Kenosha, Wis. . . . Luise Barclay, NBC's "Woman in White," studied to be a concert pianist as did Ruth Bailey, secondary lead on the same show . . . Fibber McGee is an inventor of numerous household gadgets, including a device which enables Molly to open the icebox door with a foot lever when she approaches it with loaded platters in both hands . . . Frances Carlon, leading woman in "Attorney at Law," is the granddaughter of John Carlon, first man ever to print the poems of James Whitcomb Riley . . . First Nighter star, Les Tremayne, is an expert modeler in clay, a crack swimmer, a fair swordsman, and a topnotch golfer . . . Harriette Widmer, feminine emcee on "Cabin at the Crossroads," on the NBC coast-to-coast network, was recently complimented on her negro dialect work by no less an authority than Rosetta Bradford.

Origin of Word Vaudeville

The name "vaudeville" is a corruption of the French Vau de Vire, a picturesque locality in Normandy, where a number of popular humorous songs were written in the Fifteenth century.

Knit and Crochet for 'Teen Age

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

KNITTERS are turning out perfectly charming apparel for the 'teen age these days. If you think the styles for growing girls were clever and attractive last year just wait until you see the intriguing knit-created togs for the coming spring and summer! To give you an idea of what's going on in the knitted realm we are illustrating two cunning dresses which any little miss will be proud to wear.

Fashion-right to the last detail is the little plaid school dress to the left in the picture. Knit of sturdy sports yarn it will valiantly withstand the steady grind of a schoolroom or the severe test of outdoor life, at the same time that it "carries on" with a stylish air that classes its wearer among the best-dressed set. Any little girl would treasure the separate bolero, or call it Eton jacket if you will. It is almost sure to prove her constant companion, for being a separate item it can be donned with any dress. Grand to wear under one's coat, too, if the temperature goes down!

No doubt you will feel the urge to knit more than one of these cunning jackets for they can be made to add such a fetching color touch to any dress. The combination of a plaided knit dress with a monotone bolero as pictured reaches a high note of chic.

The little jumper dress to the right is sure to appeal to mothers who knit. It is so very practical, since it can be worn over any blouse, and that means little daughter can feel spic and span in a refreshing change each day. This particular jumper dress which you see pictured is knitted of softest shetland yarn in a lovely lyon blue, and is sturdy enough to be just the thing for little missy to wear when she trots back and forth to school. The rib effect of the knit makes it up to the moment in fashion, but the real beauty of it is that it's so simple and inexpensive to make.

In the inset we are showing a cunning little hat for a cunning little girl. Call this little headpiece a calot if you are aiming to speak in correct fashion parlance. Any young fashionable will adore it and well she might. The pert little topknot curlicue gives it a style and a dash that makes it distinctive. It's crocheted of knitting worsted and can be worked up in any favorite colors.

Have you taken note of the gay-colored mittens and gloves that children are wearing with their dark coats? Some of them are hand-embroidered with cunning wool flowers.

Perhaps in the wardrobe of little daughter there is a cloth dress of all too-somber hue. Well, here's a way to make it look bright and new and attractive. Crochet or knit a triangle neckerchief of the gayest of gay yarn. While you are about it make a belt to the click, click, click of your knitting needles, or crochet if you prefer. Then crochet over all the edges of the cloth dress in buttonhole stitch of matching yarn. Perhaps you are "making over" a dress for wee daughter out of big sister's discarded cloth frock. Add these crochet details and see how pretty it will turn out.

FASHION NOTES

Pleated chiffon is favorite evening theme.

Quilted trims are noted on incoming fashions.

Hats are designed to show high-on-the-head curls.

Couturiers are showing blocked comic cartoon prints.

Continuance of embroidery is foreseen for spring.

White braid - embroidered black gowns are very smart.

Jewelry galore sets off high-necked frocks for winter.

Flowers for spring! Comes the foreword from milliners.

Emphasis is on soft-tailored suits and ensembles for spring.

Small floral prints arranged in bands are new for spring.

It's to be a very colorful season, accenting combinations.

It's to be definitely a pleated season this spring and summer.

The corselette is this season's corset ace because of the slim waistline.

Soft woolens are the most popular daytime fabrics among smart Parisians.

Wool coats with fur sleeves and panels are being seen at smart Paris restaurants.

Our Foibles

A woman always seeks to look young; a man to look rich—or important.

Men have their masculine aggravations, but none to compare to that of a housewife who has prepared a feast for company that fails to show up.

MEN LOVE GIRLS WITH PEP

If you are peppy and full of fun, men will invite you to dances and parties. BUT, if you are cross, lifeless and tired, men won't be interested. Men don't like "quiet" girls.

For three generations one woman has told another how to go "smiling through" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps Nature tone up the system, thus lessening the discomforts from the functional disorders which women must endure.

Make a note NOW to get a bottle of world-famous Pinkham's Compound today WITHOUT FAIL from your druggist—more than a million women have written in letters reporting benefit.

HARMONY OF BODY MIND AND SPIRIT

By Tamiz Tanagra

THINK BEAUTY

The muscles of the face are very small and very sensitive. That is one reason we need BEAUTY THOUGHT CONTROL . . since our thoughts react almost instantly on the muscles of the face and give what we call expression to the face.

The cream we use to keep us young and lovely we apply with an upward motion to encourage our faces to remain young . . so why not cooperate with thoughts that will also react beneficially on our tissues and muscles?

When you are about to cream or wash your face . . think pleasant happy thoughts so as to remove the strain and tenseness from your skin and muscles.

When you massage your face . . think how firm and young you are making those muscles. When you pat cream lightly around the eyes . . think how well it is erasing those tiny lines. When you brush your hair . . feel the vitality and nourishment you are bringing to the roots. When you lie down for a beauty rest . . put all thoughts of family and problems out of our mind . . think of the rejuvenation and rest you are bringing to your body and mind.

Have confidence in the result of this care and your thoughts. We must know and believe that we can be more charming and lovely than we are. We cannot sit and bemoan our faces any more . . we must do something about it. You have unlimited possibilities for expressing both beauty and charm.

You must act, not pretend. Acting is positive . . stimulating and beneficial. Pretending is negative . . repressive and harmful. This should be applied to those who feel they have handicaps . . but remember nothing need be a handicap unless we let it.

There are no definite requirements laid down any more as to what constitutes beauty. Convince yourself that you have a large order of beauty despite what you consider handicaps. EXPECT beauty. DEMAND beauty. Avoid a dull state of mind that is contented with your appearance as it is. Make yourself young and lovely and the world will practically be yours for the asking.

Realize that a complete transformation is possible. Think positive thoughts about this business of beauty instead of negative thoughts. Know that you CAN rather than cannot be lovely.

Very often beauty begins when you really believe that you can be beautiful.
